

JUNIOR MISS ODAWA 2022-2023

Background & Overview: Odawa Indian princess pageants began in 1939 in Petoskey, Michigan. The Junior Miss Odawa contest carries on the tradition of selecting a young, Odawa woman to represent the local community. Open to Native American girls from the ages of 7-12, Junior Miss Odawa is selected by acquiring points in a variety of categories. She must have knowledge of the customs, traditions and the history of the Odawa Nation. Please prepare the following items for your application:

1. Official Entry Application
2. Letter of Reference/Support from a mentor, tribal elder, educator, employer or other non-related adult familiar with applicant. Must include a current contact phone number.
3. Certification of Native American blood or tribal affiliation. Applicant must have Odawa heritage and be at least ¼ Native American. This certification can be in the form of a signed document from a tribal enrollment department or a copy of a tribal identification card/status card.
4. Signed Contestant Agreement with a parent/guardian signature.
5. Current photograph: (preferably a 5x7 color photo). The photographs of Junior Miss Odawa contestants and Junior Miss Odawa may be utilized in tribal publications.
6. Short Bio written by a parent/guardian: Submit a short essay with application (1½ to 2 pages in length) about the contestant. Share goals, ambitions, education, family and interest/hobbies, anything you would like to include. This essay may be published publicly.
7. Submit an essay titled, “What would I do and/or accomplish as Junior Miss Odawa?” This essay should be 1 paragraph, and contestants may be assisted by a parent/guardian.
8. 2022 – 2023 Junior Miss Odawa Release Form

Junior Miss Odawa will compete in the following categories:

- Essay – “What would I do and/or accomplish as Junior Miss Odawa?”
- Biography
- Interview
- Dance Exhibition

All contestants will be judged according to the above criteria. The contestant with the highest accumulated points will be crowned Junior Miss Odawa for one year. If there is a tie among contestants, the tiebreaker will be public speaking.

JUNIOR MISS ODAWA 2022-2023

- As a contestant for the title of Junior Miss Odawa, you represent yourself, your family and the Odawa people.
- Junior Miss Odawa shall conduct herself in a respectful way, especially when wearing the Junior Miss Odawa crown and/or sash. This means you will refrain from using profane language and/or having an outburst of any kind. This also includes inappropriate socializing with a significant other (i.e. display of affection, etc.) in public and/or with friends. Any infringement of these moral standards will result in disqualification as a Junior Miss Odawa contestant and, in the case of the chosen Junior Miss Odawa, loss of the title, crown and sash. Should this unfortunate situation occur, the first runner-up from the most recent competition will be asked to assume the Junior Miss Odawa title and duties.
- You must refrain from posting inappropriate pictures/photos or comments on social media.
- All contestants must be drug and alcohol free.
- You must have a positive attitude before, during and after the contest. You will be required to respect and cooperate with fellow contestants, the Junior Miss Odawa Committee, Judges, Odawa Homecoming Pow Wow staff, the general public and anyone else you may come in contact with at all times.
- As a contestant, you cannot have previously held the title of Junior Miss Odawa.
- Junior Miss Odawa is expected to participate in and be on time for at least two pow wows in Michigan and two community events in the Harbor Springs/Petoskey area. The major part of being Junior Miss Odawa is to represent the Odawa people. Monetary and logistical travel assistance and reimbursements are to be coordinated through Annette VanDeCar at 231-838-2969 or avandecar@ltbbodawa-nsn.gov
- Junior Miss Odawa is responsible for the Junior Miss Odawa crown. After reigning for one year, the crown must be returned in the same condition as when it was awarded.
- All the above rules also apply to Junior Miss Odawa when representing the Odawa people, LTBB and the Odawa Homecoming Pow Wow outside of Michigan.

These rules/regulations must be obeyed while representing the Odawa people. Failure to abide by these rules/regulations will result in disqualification as a Junior Miss Odawa contestant or your title being forfeited.

By signing this document, I have read and agree to the rules/regulations listed above.

Release Form

I give LTBB Communications Coordinator Annette VanDeCar my permission to use the information included in my biography submitted to the Junior Miss Odawa Committee for an article that will appear in the September issue of Odawa Trails.

Once the article is written, it will be sent to me to review before publication. At that time, I can indicate any changes that need to be made to the article.

I also give LTBB Communications Coordinator Annette VanDeCar my permission to take a photo of myself and my immediate family after I am crowned on Saturday at the Odawa Homecoming Pow Wow. That photo will be sent to me to review before publication. I also understand that photos of me as Junior Miss Odawa may be selected for use in other publications related to the LTBB tribe, the Junior Miss Odawa program and/or the Annual Odawa Homecoming Pow Wow.

I am including an e-mail address where the article and the photo can be sent for my review.
